

The Glasgow University Tech Society Constitution

Authored by the Glasgow University Tech Society Committee

November 10, 2015

Contents

| | | |
|----------|--|----------|
| 1 | Preamble | 2 |
| 1.1 | Name | 2 |
| 1.2 | Equal Opportunities | 2 |
| 1.3 | Aims | 2 |
| 1.4 | Activities | 3 |
| 2 | Members and Committee | 4 |
| 2.1 | Membership | 4 |
| 2.2 | Governance | 4 |
| 2.3 | Committee and Responsibilities | 5 |
| 3 | General Meetings and Elections | 6 |
| 3.1 | General Meetings | 6 |
| 3.1.1 | Annual General Meeting | 6 |
| 3.1.2 | Extraordinary General Meeting | 6 |
| 3.2 | Elections | 7 |
| 4 | Constitutional Amendments | 8 |

Chapter 1

Preamble

1.1 Name

The name of the society shall be the Glasgow University Tech Society (hereafter referred to as the Society) and shall be abbreviated as GUTS.

1.2 Equal Opportunities

The Society will provide and promote equal opportunities, whatever a persons race, operating system they use, colour, ethnicity or national origin, level in World of Warcraft, religion, beliefs, sex, age, sexuality, gender identity, HIV status, physical or mental disability, state of health, appearance, marital status or family circumstances.

1.3 Aims

The society's aims and purposes shall be:

1. to create a platform for software and hardware development, IT startups and tech enterprise,
2. to broaden interest in Computing Science and related disciplines,
3. to casually introduce freshman students to software development and algorithm design, and give opportunity to senior students to give back their knowledge to the community,
4. to propagate the free and open source movement.

1.4 Activities

The society will realise its aims and purposes through the following activities opened to all its members and optionally to wider public:

1. collaboration on programming projects by means of Distributed Version Control Managers,
2. annual hackathon in semester 1,
3. talks, workshops and other educational events engaging students, members of Computing Science Department staff and Scottish IT industry,
4. weekly non-academic social events, such as Lan Parties or enjoying of beverages.
5. gathering into special interest groups to collaborate on tech-related projects.
6. an annual introductory event for 1st year students.

Chapter 2

Members and Committee

2.1 Membership

1. Full membership shall be open to registered students of University of Glasgow only.
2. Non-students may join as Associate members.
3. Every member has to sign the Declaration of Responsibility as provided by The School of Computing Science in order to be allowed access to the School's facilities.
4. Associate members (non-students) shall not account for more than 20% of the total membership.

2.2 Governance

1. The Society shall be under the control of the membership.
2. The Society shall have four office-bearers: President, Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary.
3. The Committee shall consist of all society members who have organised at least 1 society event.
4. All four office bearers shall be registered students at the University of Glasgow and shall not have opted out of SRC representation under the Education Act of 1994.
5. Any full member of the society is entitled to stand for the office bearer positions.

2.3 Committee and Responsibilities

1. The President:

- (a) shall be the spokesperson for the Club/Society.
- (b) shall chair meetings of the Committee unless unavailable
- (c) shall co-ordinate the work and activities of the Committee.

2. The Vice-President:

- (a) shall chair meetings of the Committee and perform any other Presidents duties in the case of President's absence
- (b) should be the president's advisor in any important decisions

3. The Treasurer:

- (a) shall maintain a record of the income and expenditure of the Club/Society.
- (b) shall be responsible for preparing the accounts and shall keep bank statements.

Chapter 3

General Meetings and Elections

3.1 General Meetings

3.1.1 Annual General Meeting

1. The purpose of an Annual General Meeting (AGM) is to enable all members of the Club/Society to discuss the previous years strengths and weakness, to discuss the future direction of the Club/Society, to make any constitutional amendments, to elect the office bearers and to present the Club/Societys financial statement. The membership must be given a financial statement on the years accounts.
2. The General Meeting shall take place annuallly in January or February every year.
3. Office bearers shall be elected by the membership at the AGM or at an EGM called to elect a replacement during the event of a vacancy. All office-bearers must initially be elected by the board and membership at the AGM. Those four office bearers named above must be elected by the membership, even in the event of a vacancy. It is advised that any prospective office bearers would have shadowed previous office bearers.
4. The Secretary shall give fourteen days notice of an AGM.

3.1.2 Extraordinary General Meeting

1. An Extraordinary General Meeting (EGM) shall be called either by the Committee or by submission of a written request by 10% of the membership.
2. The Secretary shall give five working days notice of an EGM.

3. The quoracy of an EGM or AGM is 10% of the full membership.
4. Any member who is a registered student shall have full voting rights at the AGM or an Extraordinary General Meeting (EGM) of the Club/Society.
5. At any General Meeting of the Society, the weight assigned to the total vote of Associate members shall not exceed 10% of the total voting members present.

3.2 Elections

Elections shall be by secret ballot.

Chapter 4

Constitutional Amendments

1. The membership may make constitutional amendments at the Annual General Meeting by decision of the membership majority provided that quorum is met.
2. On receipt of a petition signed by 10% of the membership, the Secretary shall give five working days notice of an Extraordinary General Meeting to consider submitted amendments.
3. The Secretary shall give fourteen days notice of an AGM.